

CONSUMER REPORT DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

The Salvation Army, a California Corporation (“TSA”), will order a consumer report on you from a consumer reporting agency (“CRA”) for employment purposes, including independent contractor and volunteer engagements.

The consumer reports may contain information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. To the extent allowed by law, the reports may contain information regarding: public records; credit history; driving records; verification of your prior employment, licenses, credentials, and education; government watch lists; address history; Social Security number validation; and other background checks.
